MOMMY, THERE'S A PUPPY IN MY SOUP
Music, Lyrics and Vocals: Carole Brill

Mommy, there's a puppy in my soup.
I saw him! He just jumped off the cracker!
Oh, Mommy, what if that puppy barks at me?
I don't really think that I should eat this!

Mommy, there's a monkey in the sauce.
There he is! He just slid down the noodle from my fork.
Oh, Mommy, this spaghetti's not for me.
I don't really think that I should eat this.

Mommy, I saw a penguin in the peas.
I did! He's wiggling that little lump of threes!
Oh, Mommy, don't make me eat this, please.
I don't really think that I should eat this.

Mommy, I saw a dolphin in my juice.
He saw me! And he just smiled at me.
Look Mommy! He's blowing bubbles at me.
I don't really think that I should drink this.

Mommy, I'm hungry.
Mommy, I'm really hungry.
Mommy, I'm so hungry, please
Can I have a cookie?

TEDDY BEAR TUNE
Music and Lyrics: Bob Brill
Vocals: Carole Brill, Larry Hoppen

Every New Year's Eve when the sun goes down
And all the girls and boys are quiet,
They're heading from their houses in the cities and towns
They're heading for the TeddyBear Riot.

Chorus:Hundreds under the moon
                      Sing the Teddy Bear Tune,
              Dadoo...
Little fuzzy wuzzies and the kodiaks too,
Dancing through the trees and willows,
Jumping up and down 'til their feet turn blue,
Unless they brought along some pillows.
Chorus
Some go running and jumping and such
And some go rowing in boats,
And even if it's snowing, it don't bother them much
'Cause they're wearing their teddy bear coats.
              Chorus
Running and skipping in the snowy white lawn,
They're laughing as they trip and fall.
Jumping up and down 'til the break of dawn
It's the happiest night of them all!
              Chorus

I'LL BUNDLE YOU UP
Music, Lyrics and Vocals: Carole Brill
Guitar: Larry Hoppen, Carole Brill
Chorus: Oh, Mommy, I'm gonna go for a walk.
              Guess who I'm taking with me, me
              Guess who I'm taking with me!
I'm gonna take my teddy bear.
Leave him behind? No, I wouldn't dare!
I'm gonna take my teddy bear.
I'll bundle him up for the walk, walk.
I'll bundle him up for the walk.

And I'm gonna take my kangaroo.

Leave him behind? No, that wouldn't do!
I'm gonna take my kangaroo,
I'll bundle him up for the walk, walk.
I'll bundle him up for the walk.

Chorus

Well, I'm gonna take my little white horse.
Leave him behind? No, I'll take him of course!
I'm gonna take my little white horse,
I'll bundle him up for the walk, walk.
I'll bundle him up for the walk.

And I'm gonna take my unicorn.
Leave him behind? His heart would be torn!
I'm gonna take my unicorn,
I'll bundle him up for the walk, walk.
I'll bundle him up for the walk.

Chorus

I'm gonna take my chimpanzee.
Leave him behind? No, I'll take him with me.
I'm gonna take my chimpanzee,
I'll bundle him up for the walk, walk.
I'll bundle him up for the walk.

Oh, Mommy, why are you looking so glum?
Leave you behind? No, of course you can come!
Mommy, don't be looking so glum,
I'll bundle you up for the walk, walk
I'll bundle you up for the walk.
              Chorus.

GRANDPA'S FARM
Music and Lyrics: Carole Brill

Vocals: Carole Brill, Larry Hoppen

Chorus: I went down to Grandpa's farm just the other day.
              My Grandpa's friends are silly-you should see who's there today!

Visiting my Grandpa is a chartreuse dinosaur,
You should have seen her try to fit through the kitchen door!
              Chorus
Visiting my Grandpa is a silly polar bear
Who couldn't choose between the different coats he liked to wear!
              Chorus
Visiting my Grandpa is a yellow kangaroo
His head is green, his feet are red, his toes are pink and blue!
              Chorus
Visiting my Grandpa is a moody purple lion.
One minute he'll be laughing, next minute he'll be crying!
              Chorus
Visiting her Grandpa is a turquoise crocodile
Who loved to show her orange teeth
Every time she smiled!

So come on down to Grandpa's farm,
We're going there today.
My Grandpa is so silly! I love him best that way!
